ELDER'S CORNER

Satan, he's a formidable adversary. Known as "the tempter" (Matthew 4:3), "a liar and the father of lies" (John 8:44), "the evil one" (Ephesians 6:16), "your enemy" (1 Peter 5:8), the one who "leads the whole world astray" (Revelation 12:9), and "the accuser" (12:10), Satan isn't compelled to fight by the rules. He's devious, persistent, and ruthless. His millennia of experience give him keen insight into human nature and make him a master of deception.

Although Jesus' resurrection dealt him a crushing blow from which he can never recover, Satan continues to lead his demonic army in attempts to corrupt and destroy God's faithful.

Anytime we choose sin over holiness; whenever we fight with family, quarrel with a coworker, undermine a fellow church member, or violate our own conscience, Satan wants us to see only one dimension of the struggle. He doesn't want us to realize that as we face conflict in the physical realm, we are also at war in the spiritual realm.

"Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand" (Ephesians 6:14). The explanation that follows shows us how the pursuit of truth, righteousness, peace, and faith combined with confidence in our salvation, a commitment to God's Word, and the practice of prayer empower us to stand our ground against the enemy's assaults.

Once we've opened our eyes to Satan's tactics and are protected by God's armor, nothing can take us by surprise. Even so, like Paul, we must remember that we've made an enemy for life. As long as we remain in this world, Satan will pull out all the stops to pry us from our faith. Let's counter his efforts, not by focusing exclusively on resistance, but by drawing nearer and nearer to the God we love and serve.
