Welcome Spring.....

We are looking for individuals, life groups, and families to help! Clifton Christian Church Food Bank does a food drive each 3rd Saturday of the month, from 10AM-2PM, at Safeway parking lot on Patterson. It is a time of Great fun and fellowshiping together. We need many great "Servant Hearts"! Please reach out and sign up today.

Clifton Christian Church Food Bank's mission is to provide nutritious and supplementary items to individuals in need, showing love, compassion and respect, touching each one with the LOVE OF JESUS, that they would know they are important and have a great purpose in our community.

2025 was an amazing year watching God work in so many people's lives with the high cost of food we all were facing. He showed up to provide to over 65,000 individuals. We're so grateful for all the financial support, in kind donation, and so many prayer warriors.

We are thankful and grateful that we are a cornerstone in our community, people rely on Clifton Christian Church Food Bank. Clifton Christian Church Food Bank's foundation is Christ our Lord.

With much love.

ELDER'S CORNER

Thoughts about our February Revival Meeting:

Six different musical talents were featured, many great testimonies, and equally sincere prayers. So, the question is how do we continue the Revival spirit in church? Of course, the very first thing we should do regardless of the question, is to Pray to God and ask Him for guidance. Please do this for us. Second, please talk about the best way to share by word of mouth. Invite a family to come to an event that may change their lives. Pray daily for God's grace on our church; that will go a long way. Our church is the people, let's do all we can to be a blessing to them. Luke 10:2 says, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest."

Our church has chosen to follow God's desire of discipleship through intentional relationships. The best way is to be intentional, talk to people, invite all your friends and family and, why not strangers?

We are planning on continuing these Revival Meetings. Stay tuned and be prepared to invite others.

Blessings,

Vern Herold, Elder
